Explore Wine Country from Sky to Vines

Enjoy a VIP wine tasting and multi-course lunch for 10 people at the beautiful Antica Terra winery in Dundee. Head winemaker Maggie Harrison (formerly of the iconic Sine Qua Non winery) has been earning glowing praise—just ask LeBron James, who loves his Antica Terra—and commanding eye-opening prices for her elegant, small-run Pinot Noirs and Syrahs. You'll be joined for a conversation and tour with Maggie herself, and treated to a four-course lunch by beloved Chef Timothy Wastell (formerly of Portland's DOC), paired with 10 wines—6 from Antica Terra and sister winery Lillian, and 4 other refined wines from around the world. Then enjoy a 1-hour sightseeing tour for 2 in a private plane over the Willamette Valley! Follow up your flight with a 2-night stay for 2 at Black Walnut Inn & Vineyard and a private tasting of Rose & Arrow Estate wines. This package also includes 3 suites at the luxurious, design-forward Atticus Hotel in McMinnville, which has been garnering well-deserved awards and reviews since its recent opening in 2018.

Available on a mutually agreeable weekend date. Flight is weather dependent, with maximum weight for passengers and carry on items limited to 330 pounds. See individual certificates for restrictions.

Thank you to our donors Antica Terra Winery, Atticus Hotel, Elaine Gossman & Art Bridge, and Rose & Arrow Estate Wines
